2022 ANNUAL AWARDS

Banquet

6PM—JANUARY 29, 2022—
the George, College Station, TX

With an average purse of nearly $430,000, the TQHA Sale Futurity has been the nation's richest sale-restricted futurity over the last 10 years.

With added money increasing to $200,000 this year, we expect the race to have its richest purse ever.

The TQHA Yearling Sale and the TQHA Sale Futurity cause more horses to be bred, more horses to be accredited and more horses to be raced in Texas . . . all of which helps the TQHA be stronger.

These things are good for everyone that owns a horse in Texas.

All of us at Cox Ranch encourage you to participate in this year's TQHA Yearling Sale and the TQHA Sale Futurity.

TQHA YEARLING SALE

Most Valuable Professional

Suzy Jeane

Suzy Jeane is the first female to serve as President of NSBA and was named AQHA Professional Horsewoman in 2004. She was inducted into the NSBA Hall of Fame in 2012. Suzy also served as manager for Team USA in the AQHA Youth World Cup. She is an AQHA judge and Clinician.

Currently, Suzy serves on the AQHA Board of Directors for Texas and is a member of the AQHA Youth Activities Committee. Suzy is the Assistant Coach for the A&M Equestrian Team, whoop!

Suzy's involvement in TQHA began over 30 years ago and continues to this day. From volunteering at horse shows in official capacities to donating her World-Famous Whiskey River Cake to auctions to benefit our Association. Suzy is an essential part of TQHA, and we are so fortunate to benefit from her generosity, professionalism, and joy!
